

DOLORES HUERTA

Si, se puede!

© David Bacon dbacon@igc.org

(UFW). She fought toxic pesticide use, organized non-violent demonstrations and gathered support for her causes. Through her efforts, the Agricultural Labor Relations Act, America's first bill of rights for farm workers, was enacted.

Huerta holds civil liberty and freedom awards and is a member of the National Women's Hall of Fame. The Dolores Huerta Foundation continues her work.

Marching shoulder to shoulder with Cesar Chavez, Dolores Huerta has dedicated her life to social justice and equal opportunity. A trained classroom teacher, Huerta opted to educate through advocacy, as an organizer, lobbyist and outspoken co-founder of the United Farm Workers of America

